Dedication

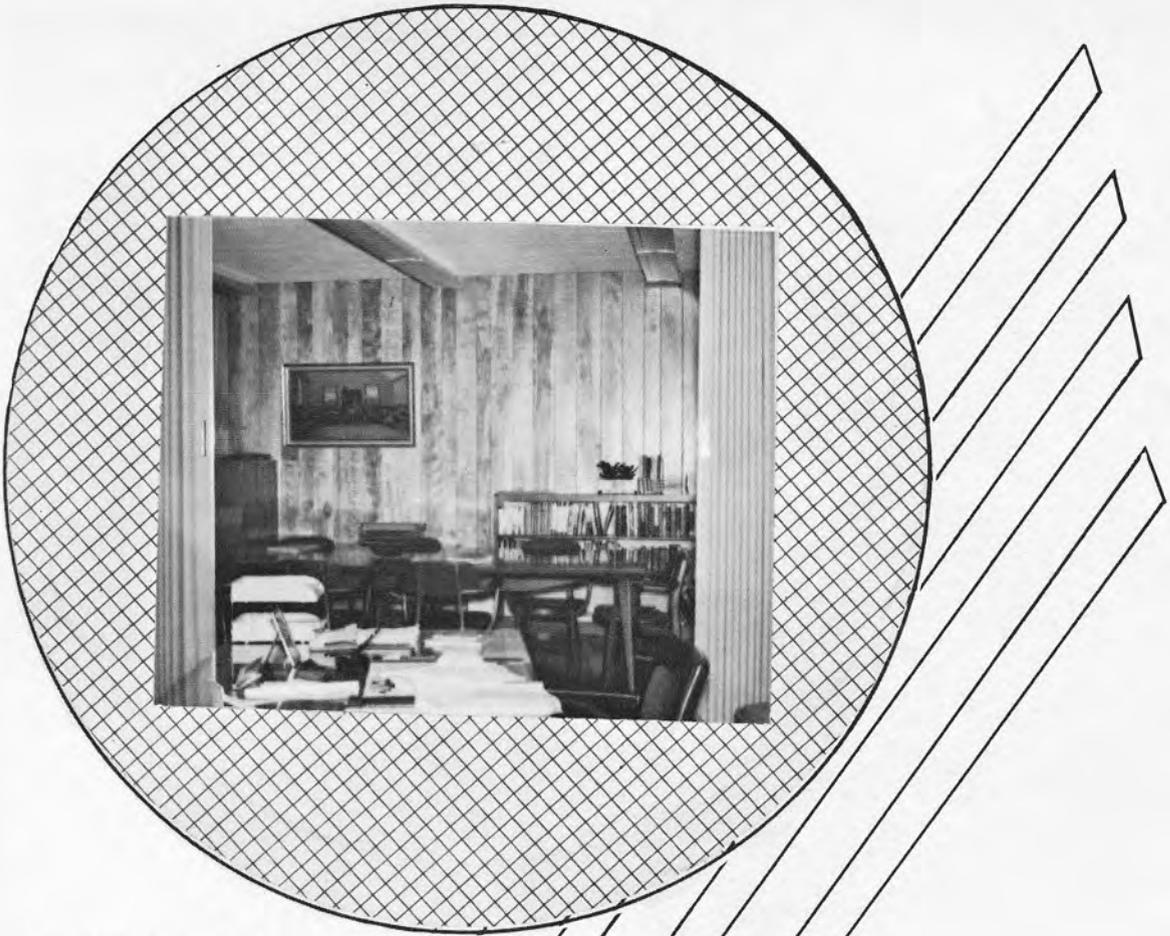

MISS ERMA BAYER

To one who has been A guide,
A friend,
A leader;
In recognition for Your untiring efforts,
Your patience with our problems,
And your genuine interest in us all;
We dedicate the 1964 edition of the T.V. Hi-Lites to you, MISS ERMA BAYER.

Miss Bayer has been with our school system for six years, and is at present teaching Latin. She is also librarian and advisor to the National Honor Society, and formerly taught College English, French, and Journalism. Miss Bayer planned the Latin and French Banquets and assisted with the Junior and Senior Proms for several years.

"We hope, Miss Bayer, that the years that you have been teaching have been richly rewarding ones for you."

Open House

Oct. 27, 1963

At Open House parents were confused as they attempted to find their way to classes. Upon entering the school they were greeted by a Future Teacher and then given their son or daughter's schedule to follow. Their day started with an assembly conducted by Mr. McCullough. Then the first bell rang and classes began. The Future Teachers assisted the parents in finding the various rooms.

Apparently our parents are not so old-fashioned as we think for their behavior was much the same as ours on a normal school day. Teachers had to ask parents to "get quiet"; there was crowding in the lunch line and loitering in the halls. There was only one difference: THEY were allowed.

All in all the parents seemed to enjoy this day which brought back memories of their school days.

After a great deal of planning and work, we were able to complete the mats for the publisher so that the annual will be received early in May.

We hope that you will enjoy this year's annual. We know that it will hold many memories for you.

We hope that there are no errors; any that may occur were unintentional.

Senior Honors

Robert Lee was chosen first alternate to West Point.

Elizabeth Beucler was named Future Homemaker for T.V. High. She received the highest grade on the Betty Crocker "Homemaker of the Year" Test.

Gary Ferren was selected to the Coaches' All-County basketball team.

Jim Zaleski won a "superior" in the field of physics at the County Science Fair with his design and construction of telescopic lens-grinding apparatus.

Mary Jane Shulty received a "superior" in the County Music Contest for her saxophone solo.

Nancy Gordon received an "excellent" in the County Music Contest for her piano solo.

COUNTY SPEECH CLINIC

Connie Foster - "2nd place" in Original Declamation, and Mary Jean Baker - "2nd place" in Original Oratory. Both attended State competition.

During the Spring of her Junior year, Anola Shrader was chosen to attend Ohio Wesleyan University, Delaware, Ohio, for a course in advanced chemistry. The course lasted ten weeks during the following summer.

Anola's research consisted of study of strontium chlorite, its properties and reactions to temperature and light. She and three other students were given complete freedom and were allowed to use any and all instruments in the laboratory.

Anola has been awarded a renewable tuition scholarship to Ohio Wesleyan University.

Home Ec. Style Show

On November 19, 1963 at 2 P. M. the third year Home Ec. class presented a style show. Seventeen girls modeled suits, coats, and dresses which they had made.

After the show, the girls served cookies, coffee, and milk to their mothers and other students. Mrs. Richardson was presented with a gift for her help with the fashion show.

The Student Council is designed to meet the needs of each individual student and to promote a cooperative atmosphere in the school. It is comprised of the class presidents and two representatives from each homeroom. Election of officers is held in the spring with a week of campaigning by the campaign managers. At an assembly the campaign managers and candidates deliver election speeches. The election is to give the students a practical approach to self-government. The officers elected, assume a great deal of responsibility in carrying out the goals of the Student Council.

Under the expert guidance of Mr. Robert McCullough and the leadership of Ned Howenstine, the Council planned the Homecoming game and dance, noon movies, assembly programs, and various other activities.

Junior-Senior Prom

"April in Paris" was the theme of the 1963 Junior-Senior Prom. The banquet and dance were held in the "Driftwood Room" of Mergus's Restaurant on April 28, 1963.

The tables, named for famous streets of Paris, had colorful waxed wine bottles as centerpieces. Each guest received champagne poppers as favors.

Ned Howenstine, the typical Pierre, served as Master of Ceremonies. A French song was presented by four girls, while Miss Mugridge accompanied them with the ukulele.

Ann Lebold and Bob Jones, reigned as Queen and King and were crowned under the French Canopy.

Under the direction of a new journalism teacher, Miss Glore, the members of the "Trojan Torch" staff have again carried high the "Torch" for the 1963-64 school year.

A new feature this year is "Tusky" the talking horse, who replaced "Billy" the school house mouse.

In November, the staff went to the Daily Times in New Philadelphia. They spent the day watching the activities and helping to put out the paper. Each student gained much insight on the work involved in publishing a daily paper.

TVHS Homecoming Held: Dance, Game Highlight Events

T.V.H.S. Homecoming 1963 was highlighted by Tuscarawas Valley's impressive victory 72-28 over Conotton Valley in the afternoon. The homecoming dance took place in the gym featuring Queen, Vicky Zutavern and her court: Freshman attendant, Sharon Simon; Sophomore attendant, Mary Ann Sattler; Junior attendant, Bonnie Douglas; and Senior attendant, Elaine Blasen-hauer. See the Queen's court story on page four.

The queen and her court walked through a garden of roses and the rest of the gym was decorated in green, white, and red crepe paper. The drifters were the band for this

Seventh Annual Homecoming October 5, 1963

On October 5, a bright and sunny afternoon, the Tusky Valley "Trojans" met with the Conotton Valley "Rockets". It was more than just another football game, it was "Homecoming".

At half time the football field became a royal courtyard as the Queen and her attendants arrived in convertibles decorated in festive colors. As the band played "Miss America", Mr. Kirkland introduced the Queen and her attendants. Candy Unsold, 1962 Queen, presented a dozen long-stemmed roses to Queen Vicky. The team honored the Queen with a record-breaking victory over the "Rockets" by a score of 72-28.

The Student Council sponsored the Homecoming Dance held that evening. Candy Unsold officially crowned Vicky Zutavern, 1963 Queen. Music for the dance was provided by "The Skylarks."

National Honor Society

National Honor Society induction ceremonies were held April 9, 1963. The inductees were instructed as to the meaning of the principles and the emblem of the Society.

Rachel Pugsley, from Devonshire, England, was the speaker. Rachel was an exchange student at Strasburg High School.

Mr. McCullough administered the pledge to the inductees, and Mr. Kinneer delivered the challenge.

Following the induction, a reception was held in the library for teachers, parents, and members.

Annie Get Your Gun

May 10-11, 1963

Ann Lebold and John Rohrer played the leading roles in Tuscarawas Valley's second musical, "Annie Get Your Gun".

It was the story of Annie Oakley and Frank Butler, two of the best sharp-shooters in the Wild West. Annie Oakley was talked into a shooting match against Frank Butler. She won the contest and Buffalo Bill asked Annie to join his Wild West Show. Later, Frank Butler's show merged with Buffalo Bill's show where Annie and Frank joined an act together.

The large cast and property crew worked many hours to present an outstanding performance. Miss Mugridge and Mr. Corbi directed the play.

Mrs. McThing

Mrs. McThing, a two-act comedy, was presented on November 15 and 16. The play centered around a boy who's overly protected by his wealthy mother. Mini, a young girl, upset the routine of the boy's life and he ran away to join some gangsters. At home, a witch had put a stick in his place. The story becomes involved with a series of humorous incidents to highlight this entanglement. Near the end the action carried through to a touching climax.

Jayne Oberlin, Glenn Robinson, Dennis Robinson, and Jean Archinal compose the team with Mrs. Edward Kirkland as their advisor.

Latin

Banquet

The 1963 Latin Banquet was highlighted by the wearing of traditional Roman Dress. The program consisted of a movie on the "Days of Pompeii" and a skit presented by the first-year Latin class. Bob Burris took the honors for the most original costume. The banquet ended with the singing of "America" in Latin.

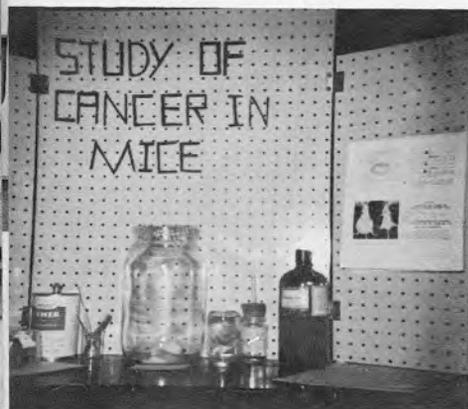

Science Fair 1963

Many students entered science projects at the County Science Fair at Tuscarawas High School. Winners at the County Fair advanced to the District Science Fair at New Concord. Those who received ratings at New Concord were: Phyllis Decker, Holly Rice, Donna Robinson, Kenneth Tabellion, and Bonnie Douglass--"good" rating. Jean Archinal, Aurelia Brinkley, Shirley Charton, Arthur Price and Elizabeth Wasem--"excellent" rating. Robert Brinkley, Dennis Robinson and Susan Norris--"superior" rating. As a result of "State Superior" at the District, Sam Wright and Julia Postlethwait advanced to the State Science Fair where Julia received a "good" rating for her project DETERMINING BLOOD TYPES and Sam received an "excellent" rating for his VACCINE AGAINST CANCER project.

T.V.H.S. Band

Under the direction of Mr. Frank Corbi, the 74-member band performed for all the football games, several parades, and presented a Christmas Concert and a Spring Concert.

State Winners

"Falcon," "Metropolis," and "Concord Overture" are still fresh in the minds of the 62-63 band members. For it was only last year that these numbers took them to the County Contest at Gnadenhutten High School; to the District Contest at Stanton Local School, Wellsville; to the State Contest at Upper Arlington H. S., Columbus. Under the direction of Mr. Corbi, the band received a "I" or superior rating at all three contests.

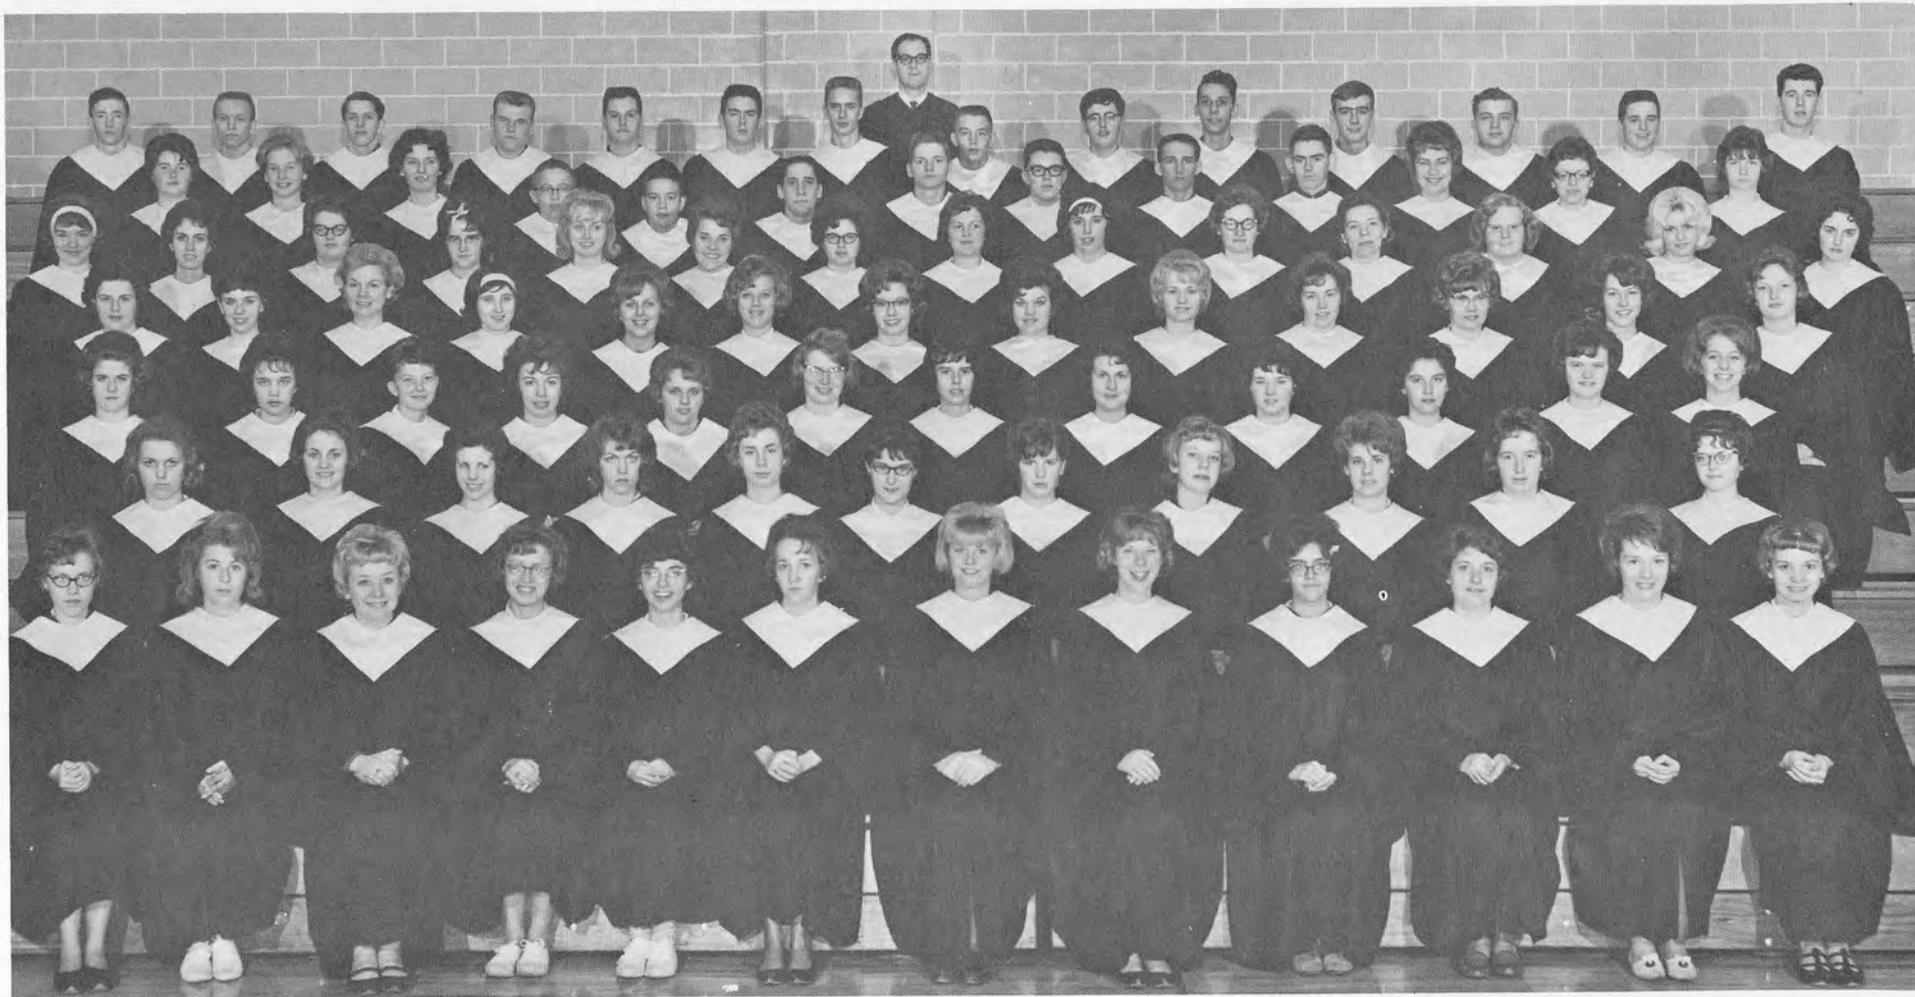

It took a good band, a trained leader, cooperation and practice. The band members will agree it took practice--plenty of practice--to achieve the goal of a superior rating at three contests. There were rehearsals after school and evening rehearsals with Mr. Marini of Fairless High School assisting Mr. Corbi.

The highlight of the three contests was the day the band traveled to Upper Arlington for State Competition. It was April 27, 1963, the day of the prom, which made it even more exciting for the Juniors and Seniors. The buses left the High School at 6:30 A. M.; arriving at Upper Arlington at 9:30 A. M.; playing the three numbers for the judges at 10:00. The band was on their way home at 10:45, stopping only long enough to eat at a roadside park.

When the band arrived home at 3:00, they were an exhausted group. The Sophomores' and Freshmen's day had ended, but for the Juniors and Seniors it had barely begun.

Because of the rush to get back, the band had not learned of their rating. That night at the prom they were rewarded for their efforts, when Mr. Corbi announced that they had received a "I". This made the long hours of preparation seem worth while and they knew that their work had not been in vain.

Senior Chorus

Every ninth period approximately 88 students make their way to the Chorus Room to rehearse a number of selections in preparation for the Spring and Christmas Concerts. Several months before Christmas the Chorus students take orders for Christmas candy.

Each spring the Chorus competes with Choral groups from other schools at the County Music Clinic. The Chorus of T. V. H. S. usually receives a high rating.

In order to become a member of the Varsity Club, a boy must earn at least two varsity letters. Their money-making project is selling popcorn at all the home basketball games. The club is also planning to erect football schedule boards in Bolivar and Mineral City.

Half-time

Game Time

In the spring of 1963, Mr. McCullough presented awards to students for their achievements and attendance.

Sam Wright's project dealing with cancer received a "Superior" in the County and District Science Fairs. This entitled him to compete in the State Science Fair where he received an "Excellent".

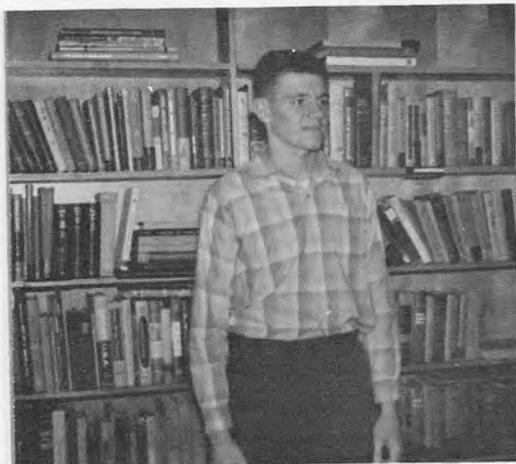

Glenn Robison received the highest score in the state in the World History Scholarship Test. He received awards for the District and State Competition.

Julia Postlethwaite's project on blood-typing received a "Superior" in the County and District Science Fairs. This entitled her to compete in the State Science Fair where she received a "Good."

Awards

In the annual Tuscarawas County Speech League, held February 10, Paul Beucler received a "First" in Boys' Extemporaneous Speaking.

Elizabeth Beucler and Dave Norris were district winners in the American Legion Contest. For winning in the district, Elizabeth and Dave received bronze medals. This test was given to all Honor Roll Students.

Honor Assembly

An Honor Assembly was held December 19, 1963 to recognize those students who were on the Honor Roll for the first two six-week periods. Approximately 75 students were honored by receiving Honor Roll Ribbons.

Mr. Henry Ross, of Timken Roller Bearing Co., was the guest speaker. He spoke on what industry expects from the schools and students. Preceding Mr. Ross's talk the Dance Band played five popular numbers.

Another assembly was held in the second semester. The Honor Students were again recognized and a film was used as the main part of the program.

Christmas Assembly

A few of the traditional Christmas Carols were sung by the Chorus. "CATCHING UP WITH CHRISTMAS".

'Midst the confusion and excitement of the Christmas Holidays a relative visiting the Stewart family learned the true value of Christmas. Members of the first year speech class were the cast. Carolyn Cantrill, Ruth Selzer, Barb Ward, Nancy Maurer, Nancy Glennan, Shirley Geers, Rosa

Hanlon, Judy Deubner. CHRISTMAS SILHOUETTES were given by advanced speech class: Sherry Leonard, Elaine Blasenbauer, Connie Foster, Anola Shrader, Mary Jean Baker, Marie Haney.

Senior Valentine Party

A last minute decision was made by the Seniors to have a Valentine Party. The girls volunteered to bake cakes or cookies for the occasion. The tables were gayly decorated with red twisted crepe paper and candy hearts strewn on both sides of the crepe paper. Nine tables were especially reserved just for the Senior Class. For this one day, the Seniors who eat fourth period received special permission to eat fifth period in order that all the Seniors might have their meal together.

The party was a great success, to say the least and a gay time was had by all. Several girls at the party collected candy hearts and made a cute little story out of them. Here it is: Kiss me, Honey Cup. When, Dear? Now! Now! Why sure. Atta Boy. Don't tell. Goodbye. Don't Go. Smart Gal. Happy Me! You Flirt. Woo me now, Doll. No Love, Sad Sack.

King of Hearts Hop

"King of Hearts Hop", held February 15, 1964, was sponsored by the Journalism class. Bill Ridenour spun records from 8:00 to 11:00.

Tom Berens was crowned King of the Year by editor-in-chief, Mary Jean Baker.

The staff decorated all day Saturday. An enormous heart was suspended from the ceiling. Streamers were draped from each basket to the floor. The throne was set off by a huge heart placed behind it.

County Tournament

The day of the County Tournament the students gathered in the gym for a pep rally. Following the enthusiastic cheers, led by the cheerleaders, Dave Widder gave a pep talk. That night the Trojans went on to defeat the Tuscarawas Broncos by a margin of 16 points. This decision entitled the Trojans to go on to further competition against the Strasburg Tigers. Here the season was ended when the Tigers defeated T. V. by the score of 69 to 53.

INTRA-MURALS

Intra-mural basketball was the big attraction during many noon hours. The boys played hard for the championship, but only one could win. The "Batling Beatles" could not be beaten. This intramural season was climaxed by an afternoon filled with fun when the "All Stars" played the faculty. The faculty was the winner by two points. The Varsity Club, who sponsored the Tournament, acted as coaches and referees.

1963 Baccalaureate

and Commencement

Valedictory

Graduates receive
Congratulations

Twelve years of education will come to a climax with our graduation, May 28, 1964.

This is the one big moment we have worked toward for twelve hard, but fun-filled years.

Even though we will experience for the first time a great sense of independence, we will be reluctant to leave realizing that our care-free days are over.

Senior night, Baccalaureate, and Commencement will always be vivid in our minds. Our remembrance of Tusky Valley will be highlighted by these last important events.
