Foreword

TUSCARAWAS VALLEY HIGH SCHOOL

A building sprawled out over a rolling green country field. An institute of learning with classes, teachers, and students.

To be looked upon as an ordinary rural school, but ... it is a special school, because it's ours.

ALMA MATER

Hail, Alma Mater, Thy sons cheer thee now
To thee TV High School, All rivals must bow.
With victory forever, Our colors will be
Forever, forever, They'll wave in victory.

MR. RAYMOND LOW

MRS. ELENORE LOW

In appreciation of their many years of teaching, we devote the 1972 T.V. Hi Lites to Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Low.

Mr. and Mrs. Low have been teaching at T.V. for 18 years. Mrs. Low has taught Junior BOE, Bookkeeping, Typing, Shorthand, Office Practice, and Record-keeping among other things. She has been class advisor for many years. Mr. Low has taught everything from Physical Education to Sociology. Mr. Low basically taught American History and World History. He has been a class advisor and was the Freshman Basketball Coach in 1963. He retired in 1971 after 17 1/2 years of teaching at T.V.

Mr. and Mrs. Low, words cannot express our sincere appreciation for the time and effort you have devoted to our school.

By devoting this annual to you we hope we can repay you in some small way for the dedication and personal interest you have given us all.

Rocketed into a world of shining stars and giant moon rocks, candles; red rockets, beautiful gowns and shiny noses - classy tuxedos and sweaty palms. Flowers, boutonnières, corsages, dimmed lights; soft music and swimming. Dancing and jokes and friends being friendly and funny; feeling nervous and feeling special for one nite,
